

YASEN KYOSEV

Assoc. Dr. Arch. Yasen Ivanov Kyosev was born in Sofia in 1974. He graduated from First English High School in 1993 and UACEG in 1999. In 2001 he studied at the Department of Urban Planning at the Royal Technical University in Stockholm (KTH). In 2004, he defended his doctoral thesis at the Department of Urban Planning, UACEG. He has abiding professional interests in urban history and the development of city centres. Has participated in important competitions and development projects in a team under the leadership of Prof. Ivan Nikiforov. He is the author of projects for residential and holiday buildings and complexes. He has been a lecturer at the "Urban Planning" department of the Faculty of Architecture in UACEG since 2003, conducting lecture courses and practical projects for students of "Architecture", "Urbanism" etc. Between 2011-2015 he served as the deputy dean of the Architectural Faculty at UACEG, and since 2020 has been the head of the "Urban Planning" department.