

RESUL EMRAH ŐAHAN

Resul Emrah Őahan had his undergraduate degree at Mimar Sinan Fine Arts University, Department of City and Regional Planning in 2006. His professional career started at Istanbul Metropolitan Planning and Urban Design Center (IMP) of Istanbul Metropolitan Municipality. In 2008, he founded a company operating in the field of software and training focused on urban projects and carried out projects in several cities around Turkey. In 2012, he returned to the local government to carry out various upper scale plans and field studies. Between 2014-2019, he worked as the project coordinator in the technical coordination and projects unit of Beylikdüzü Municipality. He managed the coordination processes of the campaign team working on urban policies in Istanbul during the 2019 local elections. Őahan has been a council member of Istanbul Metropolitan Municipality and ŐiŐli Municipality since 2019. He is the chairman of the Istanbul Planning Agency, the think tank of Istanbul Metropolitan Municipality to re-think the city with the shared wisdom and science. He is also the chairman of the board of directors of BİMTAŐ, one of the affiliates of Istanbul Metropolitan Municipality with an expertise on engineering, consultancy and planning in the city.