

MARIA MEHANDJIEVA

Graduated "Law" at New Bulgarian University as a second degree. She works as the chief legal advisor in Sofia Municipality, Department of "Architecture and Urban Planning". She has participated in the preparation and organization of the competition "Construction, restoration and renovation of public spaces in the centre of Sofia", competition for detailed development plan of Park "Borisova gradina" in the city of Sofia and other public procurements and competitions in the field of urban planning, held by Sofia Municipality.

Member of the jury in the competition "Development of technical and work investment projects for the reconstruction and remodeling of the existing building of the thermal power plant of the National Palace of Culture into a center for arts and culture", international competition "Development of technical and work investment projects for the reconstruction of St. Nedelya square and its adjacent spaces".